

Polskie Archiwum Biograficzne / Polish Biographical Archive. Compiled by D. Hebig, H. Petrak and U. Richter. Munich: K.G. Saur, 1992-. 356 fiches.

Polskie Archiwum Biograficzne / Polish Biographical Archive. Supplement. Edited by Gabriele Baumgartner. Munich: K.G. Saur, [199-]. Microfiche.

COVERAGE The collection includes biographical information drawn from 180 reference works published from the 17th through the 20th centuries. The biographies were taken from Polish sources, from international biographical collections and also from German, Russian, French, English and Latin documents from the period of the 17th century until approximately 1945. It contains information on clans, families and individuals, providing a complete picture of the historical, political, social and cultural development of Poland.

Biographical sources about persons from all classes and occupational groups have been gathered. This set covers politicians, government figures, military personnel, writers, poets, musicians, artists, scientists, medical figures, merchants, businessmen, architects, theologians, and also native Poles who spent part of their life in Poland, men and women of outstanding national and international significance, as well as people of local and regional importance are included in this Archive.

ACCESS For more information, inquire at the Reference Department, Robarts Library.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC ACCESS World Biographical Index / Internationaler Biographischer Index [computer file]. CD-ROM Edition. Munich: K.G. Saur, 1997.

CT/120/157/1997 GENR

FORMAT Microfiche

CALL NUMBER mfe/CT/1230/P55/1992

mfe/CT/1230/P55/1992X Suppl.

LOCATION Reference Department, Robarts Library

SUBJECT 1. Poland -- Biography -- Dictionaries